Countdown to Prep at Melton South Primary

Is your child starting school in 2015?

Come along to Melton South Primary’s weekly Countdown to Prep sessions and get involved with helping your child get ready for school!

Engaging and fun activities led by our Numeracy Coach and Early Years Teachers, giving children a head start to school life.

Receive tips for helping your child’s learning at home and take a bag of activities home each week.

Younger siblings are welcome to come along – educational play activities are available as well as a yummy morning tea.

Starts Term 2 2014!
Monday mornings
9.30 – 10.30am

Please complete the box below and return to the school office to register your interest.

I would like to register for Countdown to Prep at Melton South Primary School

Child’s name: ______________________________________________________

Parent to attend with child: _______________________________________

Number of younger siblings to attend: ______________________________

Contact Phone Number: ___________________________________________

I found out about the program through: _____________________________

Return to 38-46 Exford Rd, Melton South VIC 3338 (03) 9743 2922